After Constantine
Stories from the Late Antique and Early Byzantine Era

WRITING GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS OF THE JOURNAL

GENERAL GUIDELINES

All papers shall not overcome the limit of 20 pages.

Please use the Times New Roman 12 font for the main text and the Times New Roman 10 font for the footnotes.

Your paper must include a small abstract (100 words max) after the title, about its content and five or six key-words.

Please insert a footnote next to your name with a small biographical note (30-40 words)

Footnote numbers in the main text should follow commas or full-stops, without any spacing in between. For example: ... Like Constantine's strategy.[3]

Please use double quotation marks. For example "eastern."

Put the commas and periods inside the final quotation mark (e.g. "east.") and all the other marks of punctuation outside the quotation marks.

For "compare" use Cf.

Put a comma before "and" in a series. For example: In the east, the west, and north.

PLACING PHOTOS, MAPS, DIAGRAMS AND OTHER IMAGES

Each example (photograph, map, diagram etc.) must be accompanied by a descriptive title appearing immediately below, and followed by a reference.

REFERENCING IN FOOTNOTES

Please apply the Harvard reference system in your footnotes (name, publication year, page). For example Lapham 2003, p. 18.

CITING BOOKS WITH ONE AUTHOR

For books with one author, use the following order: Last name, First initial. (year published). Title. city: publisher.

For example Lapham, F. (2003). *An Introduction to the New Testament Apocrypha. London/New York: T&T Clark International.

CITING BOOKS WITH TWO OR MORE AUTHORS

For books witho two or more authors, use the following order: Last name, First initial. and Last name, First initial. (Year published). Title. City: Publisher, Page(s).

For example Daniels, K., Patterson, G. and Dunston, Y. (2014). *The ultimate student teaching guide. Los Angeles: SAGE Publications, p.145–151.

CITING CHAPTERS IN EDITED BOOKS

For citing a chapter of a book use the following order: Last name, First initial. (Year published). Chapter title. In: First initial. Last name, ed., Title, City: Publisher, Page(s).

For example Muller, C.D.G.(1991). Epistula Apostolorum. In: W. Schneemelcher, ed., New Testament Apocrypha, Volume One: Gospels and related writings, Cambridge: James Clarke & Co, p. 249–284.

CITING PRINTED JOURNAL ARTICLES

For a printed journal's article please apply this form: Last name, First initial. (Year published). Article title. Journal, Volume (Issue), Page(s).

For example: Reed, A. (2015). The Afterlives of New Testament Apocrypha. *Journal of Biblical Literature, 134 (2). pp 401–425.

CITING ONLINE JOURNAL ARTICLES

For anonline journal's article please apply this form: Last name, First initial. (Year published). Article Title. Journal, [online] Volume(Issue), pages. Available at: URL [Accessed Day Month Year].

For example Cohen, A. (2011). Land and Messianism. Journal of Textual Reasoning [online] 10 (1), pp 200–210. Available at http://jsr.shanti.virginia.edu/back-issues/vol-10-no-1-august-2011-people-and-places/land-and-messianism/ [Accessed 3 October 2019].